

CornerStone Preparatory School Expected Student Outcomes

CornerStone Preparatory School educators expect that a maturing CSPS student will:

1. respect the worth of every individual as made in God's image and be able to relate and work well with others, including other cultures:
  - a) respect individual differences, valuing each person as God's creation,
  - b) work together in groups, and
  - c) understand and appreciate people of different cultures.
2. operate from a Biblical worldview and pursue ongoing spiritual development:
  - a) understand and commit to a personal relationship with Christ,
  - b) develop, articulate, and defend a Biblical worldview,
  - c) demonstrate application and relevance of a Biblical worldview to daily decision making,
  - d) know and be able to articulate differences between Christianity and other worldviews, and
  - e) defend one's faith.
3. yield to moral integrity demonstrated by righteous living and stewardship:
  - a) make choices based on Biblical principles,
  - b) respect life,
  - c) live according to Biblical standards in family and personal relationships,
  - d) be a wise steward in use of personal, financial, and natural resources, and
  - e) be a responsible citizen in the local community and the world.
4. aspire to be academically prepared in all areas (reading, writing, listening, speaking, science, math, social studies, languages, Bible, technology, and the arts):
  - a) be a creative and critical thinker who can apply learning to solve real-world problems,
  - b) utilize technology responsibly and effectively,
  - c) access and use various and appropriate types of information resources,
  - d) appreciate and/or participate in the arts and literature,
  - e) demonstrate the academic competence that is required for next level of academic pursuit, and
  - f) communicate effectively in both verbal and written forms.
5. lead others by being a lifelong learner, prepared for next stages, including intellectual, spiritual, physical, social, and emotional health:
  - a) pursue ongoing learning as it relates to next stages, including careers,
  - b) apply learning to healthy choices affecting lifestyle,
  - c) develop a love for learning, and
  - d) recognize the spiritual implications of acting upon one's learning.
6. serve others by being prepared and motivated for life-long service:
  - a) articulate the Biblical mandate for service,
  - b) participate in service experiences,
  - c) develop leadership skills,
  - d) understand and utilize spiritual gifts,
  - e) identify personal strengths and talents,
  - f) apply the gifts of leadership and service, and work within the body of Christ according to the variety of gifts in the body.